WELCOME LETTER FROM MUNUC

Dear Delegates,

Welcome to MUNUC-SFLS Conference 2023! We are honored to work in partnership with WELAND and SFLS to present an educational and immersive conference experience for you all.

At Model United Nations of the University of Chicago (MUNUC), our mission since 1988 has always been to educate students in public speaking, international relations, and the possibilities of multilateral collaboration. We seek to make global affairs, complex topics, and their solutions accessible to all who wish to participate. This conference is already an invaluable demonstration of cross-cultural and global partnership. We hope each one of you will take advantage of the wealth of resources provided to you to become creative, reflective, and inclusive leaders of our world.

Over the conference weekend this December, we are excited to present deeply engaging committees for you to learn from and excel within. MUNUC executives have spent time and effort curating policy topics from different time periods, geographies, and cultures. You will spend this weekend simulating the world's highest policy-making bodies to come up with solutions for problems that challenge us to this day. Your participation will hone your debate and negotiation skills, but also prepare you to solve these issues yourself in the future. We challenge you to take on these problems and find ways to make progress while creating unlikely friendships. From all of us at MUNUC, thank you for your participation, determination, and dedication. We are all looking forward to seeing you in committee!

Sincerely,

Christine Jonglertham

Secretary-General for MUNUC-SFLS Conference 2023
