DELEGATE HANDBOOK

Greetings From the School Principal

Distinguished Guests, Faculty Members, Delegates, Volunteers,

Greetings! Welcome to the MUNUC-SFLS Model United Nations Conference 2025!

This conference is co-hosted by Shanghai Foreign Language School Affiliated to SISU, the Model United Nations of the University of Chicago, and WELAND International. MUNUC is one of the world's most prestigious and diverse Model United Nations conferences. Together, combined with the educational resources and platform WELAND International has and our school's extensive experience in hosting and coaching MUN events, this conference aims to become a high-standard forum that has both academic depth and global vision for young people in the country. Here, delegates will explore the forefront topics of global governance, cultivating critical thinking and cross-cultural communication skills, and enhancing global competence, which is essential for becoming future leaders.

As one of the organizers, Shanghai Foreign Language School has long adhered to the mission of "Serving the country's development and human progress", upheld our motto of "self-improvement, utmost sincerity, highest aspirations", and committed to nurturing well-rounded, highly qualified, versatile, and globally minded talents with exceptional foreign language proficiency. Since the founding of the school's MUN Club in 2004, our students—equipped with outstanding language skills, sharp insight into international affairs, and remarkable debating skills—have achieved great success on both domestic and international MUN stages, showing deep concern for global issues and steadfast commitment to peace and sustainable development. Our school will always be a stage for those dedicated to foreign diplomacy and to the service of both national development and human progress.

Through a range of committees and engaging topics, this year's conference will challenge delegates to engage in position debates, draft resolutions, and participate in multilateral negotiations—unpacking the political, economic, and cultural dynamics behind global challenges. Delegates will collaborate with talented peers from across China, developing their debating, teamwork, and diplomatic skills. Supported by our dedicated volunteer and academic teams—comprising members from our MUN Club, Student Council, and MUNUC—participants will receive attentive guidance, scholarly support, and tailored feedback to help them excel academically.

At a time when the world faces climate crises, geopolitical conflicts, and technological revolutions, the wisdom and responsibility of the younger generation are more crucial than ever. In past MUNUC-SFLS Model United Nations, young delegates from all over the nation have demonstrated exceptional global vision — presenting rigorous proposals for change, offering innovative perspectives on pressing international issues, and delivering compelling impromptu speeches. At this stage of intellectual clashes, young people are contributing fresh, vibrant ideas to the future of global governance, with courage, creativity, and inclusiveness. We believe that here, students will not only strengthen their academic skills but also gain an understanding of the shared future of humanity from the perspective of a diplomat, linking personal growth with the progress of mankind. Let us join hands to spark wisdom through debate, forge consensus through cooperation, and present youth-driven solutions to global challenges.

Greetings From the School Principal

Finally, on behalf of Shanghai Foreign Language School, I extend my sincerest gratitude to all our distinguished guests. We look forward to welcoming you this winter in Shanghai — this vibrant international metropolis—where together, with intellect and passion, we will write a new chapter in the story of global governance.

Yuehua Du

Principal of Shanghai Foreign Language School Affiliated to SISU

Welcome Letter From MUNUC

Dear Delegates and Faculty Advisors,

Welcome to MUNUC-SFLS 2025! My name is Jessie Wang, a senior at the University of Chicago, and I am honored to serve as your Secretary-General for this year's conference. Now in its seventh iteration, MUNUC-SFLS is proud to once again partner with WELAND International and Shanghai Foreign Language School to make this educational and immersive experience possible.

Since 1988, the Model United Nations of the University of Chicago (MUNUC) has been committed to educating students in public speaking, international relations, and the possibilities of multilateral collaboration. We seek to make global affairs, complex topics, and their solutions accessible to all who wish to participate. This conference is already an invaluable demonstration of cross-cultural and global partnership. We hope each and every one of you will take advantage of the wealth of resources provided to you to become creative, reflective, and inclusive leaders of our world.

Over the conference weekend this December, we are excited to present deeply engaging committees for you to learn from and excel within. MUNUC executives have spent time and effort curating policy topics from different time periods, geographies, and cultures. You will spend this weekend simulating the world's highest policy-making bodies to come up with solutions for problems that challenge us to this day. Your participation will hone your debate and negotiation skills, but also prepare you to solve similar issues in the future. We challenge you to take on these problems and find ways to make progress while creating unlikely friendships.

For the second time ever, MUNUC will also be introducing a series of continuous crisis committees at its Shanghai session. These "non-traditional" committees simulate smaller, more flexible decision-making bodies with greater authority than their "traditional" counterparts. Over the course of the conference, delegates will respond to crises developing in real time and test their critical thinking, creativity, and consensus-building skills. These fast-paced, dramatic simulations are a hallmark of our home conference in Chicago, and we are beyond excited to be bringing them to you once again.

From all of us at MUNUC, thank you for your participation, determination, and dedication. We look forward to seeing you in committee!

Best Wishes,

Jessie Wang
Secretary-General for MUNUC-SFLS Conference 2025

16. AWARD

MUNUC-SFLS Model United Nations Conference 2025 values the learning experience of a Model United Nations conference above all else. MUNUC-SFLS Model United Nations Conference 2025 prefers not to stress awards during conference, as we feel that participation and success should not be regarded in terms of who wins the most awards. With that being said, we do issue two types of awards at MUNUC-SFLS Model United Nations Conference 2025. The first type of award are the “Delegate Awards”.

Outstanding Delegate

- The honor of Outstanding Delegate is the highest honor at the MUNUC. It is awarded to the most remarkable delegate in each committee and is the highest honor of all individual awards.
- If two delegates represent a country in the committee as a delegation, the honor of “Outstanding Delegate” will be awarded to both delegates simultaneously.

Honorable Mention

- The award of Honorable Mention is next to the honor of Outstanding Delegate.
- No more than 8% for the MUNUC sub-conference of committee member states can be presented with this honor.
- If two delegates represent a country in the committee as a delegation, the award of “Honorable Mention” will be presented to both delegates simultaneously.

Verbal Commendation

- The award of Verbal Commendation is next to the honor of Honorable Mention at the MUNUC sub-conference.
- No more than 15% of committee member states can be presented with this honor.
- If two delegates represent a country in the committee as a delegation, the award of “Verbal Commendation” will be presented to both delegates simultaneously.

Delegates will be judged by the Committee Directors, in conjunction with the Secretariat where necessary, against the following criteria:

- Knowledge of the topic(s);
- Understanding of current affairs and international relations;
- Quality of public speaking;
- Diplomacy and ability to compromise;
- Contribution to resolution writing; notate bene the Best Delegate does not necessarily have to pass a resolution.

The Committee Directors’ decisions on awards are final and not subject to appeal. Should any delegate wish to question the awards, the faculty advisors must approach either the Secretary-General or the Director-General.

The second type of award are the “Delegation Awards”. There will be three sets of Delegation Awards, and the awards will be given on the basis of overall performance and delegation size. MUNUC-SFLS
